

pedal to the metal: TRUCKLINE gears up

Truckline is thrilled to launch the beginning of its latest promotion that will give 15 lucky customers a V8 RaceCar experience of a lifetime.

“With a total of 22 stores across the nation, our ever-expanding national network means a Truckline outlet is never too far away.”

Truckline proudly lays claim to being Australia's largest independent retailer and distributor of aftermarket truck and trailer parts to suit all American, European and Japanese commercial vehicles. It has over 50 years of experience and specialises in driveline components, as well as trailer products and accessories. With a catalogue of more than 30,000 competitively priced parts, Truckline caters for all road transport needs. “Whatever the age, make or model of truck or trailer, we at Truckline can source parts and accessories to fulfil each of our customer's needs,” says Marketing Coordinator, Jackie Perris.

From humble beginnings in the family home of its founder Lac Aitken, in the Sydney suburb of Kingsgrove, Truckline has experienced continuous growth. It attributes its success to its well-trained and knowledgeable staff members that are able to deliver prompt local service and support to all of its customers. General Manager, Grant Adam states, “With a total of 22 stores across the nation, our ever-expanding national network means a Truckline outlet is never too far away. We have parts and repair branches throughout New South Wales, Queensland, Victoria, South Australia and Western Australia.” Truckline has recently teamed up with V8 Race to sponsor and brand a Ford V8 Experience Car. The car, which is based at Queensland Raceway has since been used at all V8 race days and events. By spending $200 in one transaction on any Britax, Timken, Jost, Narva, Spanset or Wix products at one of Truckline's outlets from 1 August to 30 September, customers can enter the draw to win one of 15 V8 RaceCar Experiences. This prize includes a drive in a V8 racecar complete with the use of a race suit and helmet. Winners will have the choice of driving a Holden or Ford racecar and will receive a pre-drive tuition and personal in-car coach. All coaches are Accredited Cams Licence Holders and include the likes of Joel Sychala, V8 Race Super Cars; Brett Hobson, Fujitsu V8 Supercar Series; Barton Mawer, Formula 3 and Porsche Cup; Ian Dyke, A1 G.P. Australia; and John Bowe, V8 Supercar Record and Australia Touring Car Championship. These cars have been built by V8 Supercar team owner Rod Dawson. Each racecar has been stripped of all non-essentials and fitted with fully adjustable suspension, racing brakes, roll cages, harness, exhaust, fire extinguisher, aero packages, electronics, new engine, gear box and differential modifications. This is in addition to its full supercar body kit livery. Engines in these cars have been upgraded to 290 kw Quad Cam 5.4 V8 that is capable of reaching speeds of up to 220 km per hour.

Competition details: This promotion runs from 1 August to 30 September and is open to Australian residents aged 18 years or over. The draw will take place at Truckline Truck and Trailer Parts in Acacia Ridge, Queensland on October 15 at 12 noon. The winners will be notified by mail and their names will be published on www.truckline.com.au. Winners will be able to take up this experience at the relevant race track in their state. Admission is free for all spectators.
